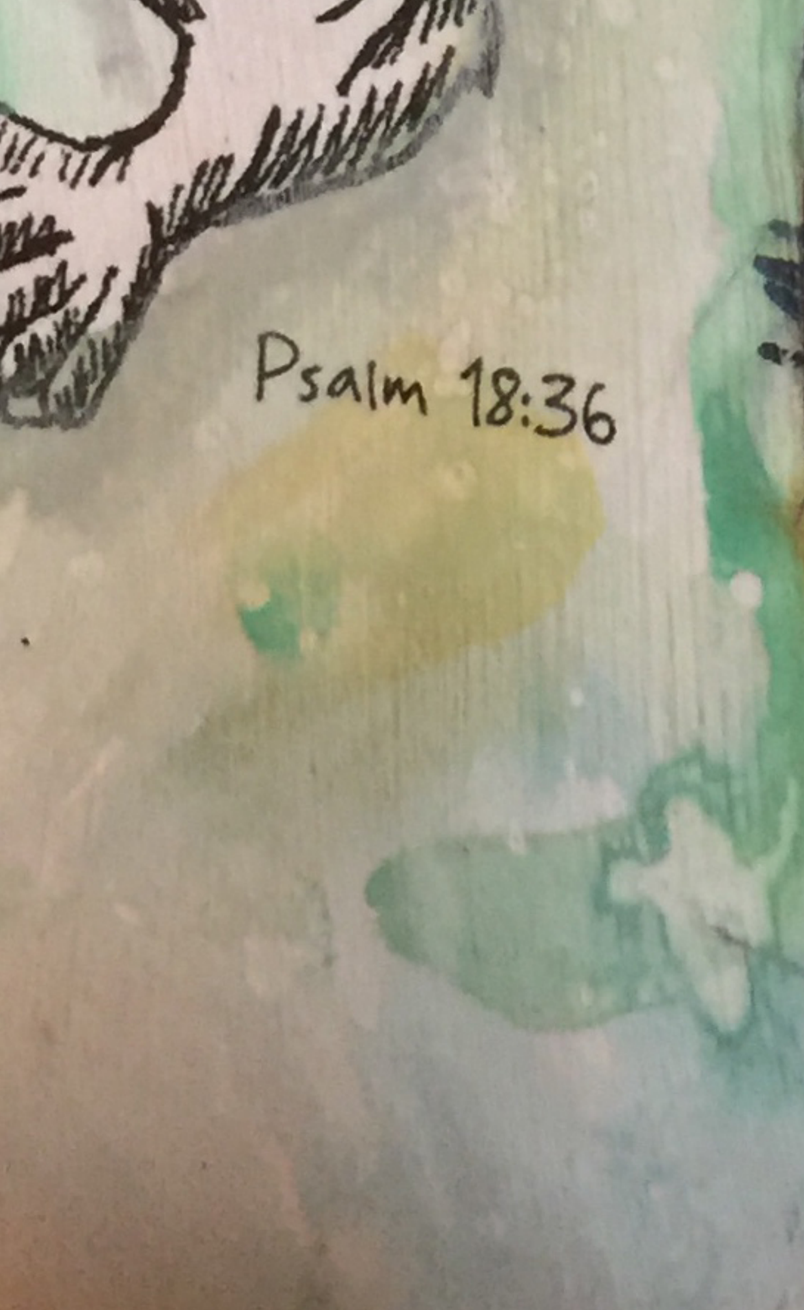
You've set me FREE from captivity



Psalm 18:36

32 You have wrap[illegible] and [illegible] you've [illegible] me you[illegible]
33 Through [illegible] as[illegible] the high[illegible]
your glory
to stand in the heavenly places, strong a[illegible]
secure in your[illegible]
34 You've trained me with the weapons o[illegible]
warfare, worship:
I'll descend down into battle wi[illegible]
to chase and conquer my foes.
35 You empower me for victory with yo[illegible]
around presence.
Your power within makes me strong to
and by stooping down in gentleness
you strengthen me and made me gr[illegible]
You've set me free from captivity
and now I'm standing complete, ready some more!
37 I caught up with my enemies and con[illegible]
I be[illegible]
and didn't turn back until the war was finished.
I pulled them to the ground and brok[illegible]
pieces.
I finished them once and for all; they're
has dead.
39 You've placed your armor upon me
and defeated my enemies, making them
at my feet.
40 You've made them all turn tail and run,
for through you I've destroyed them all!

a 18:32 The Septu[illegible]
(in perfection). [illegible] You have set me way bla