

No miraculous signs anymore.
There's no longer a prophet among us who can tell us how long this devastation will continue.

"So why, now, such long delay, O Lord, if you're angry? These bastards blaspheme you."

Will you stay, O Lord, and watch them get away
with this blasphemy?

"Why do you ask something?
You have sworn to break in,
so why do you hide your great power from us?"

Don't hold back! Unleash your might and give them a good scolding.

"You have been, and always will be, my King, O Lord."

You are the Lord, the Conqueror working wonders
all over the earth.

"It was you who split the sea in two by your glorious might."

You smashed the jaw of Tannin, the Septuagint says, "You've crushed the jaws of the dragon

in the water."^a

^b 74:14 Leviathan is mentioned in Job 41. Leviathan means twisted, coiled, and is considered to be a sea
monster (Isaiah 27:1).
