Psalm 63

THIRSTING FOR GOD

For the Pure and Shining One
King David's song when he was exiled in the Judean wilderness

1 O God of my life, I'm lovesick for you in this weary wilderness.
I thirst with the deepest longings to love you
more
with cravings in my heart that can't be described.
Such yearning grips my soul for you, my God!
2 I'm energized every time I enter your heavenly sanctuary to seek more of your power
and drink in more of your glory.
3 For your tender mercies mean more to me than life itself.
How I love and praise you, God!
4 Daily I will worship you passionately and with all my heart.
My arms will wave to you like banners of praise.
5 I overflow with praise when I come before you
for the anointing of your presence satisfies me
like nothing else.

YOU MORE

PSALM 63:1

You are such a quiet of pleasure to my soul.

6-7 I lie awake each night thinking of you
and reflecting on how you help me like Father.
I sit through the night under your splendor
in shadow,
and I rise up to you my songs of delight and joy
in passion I pursue and love you.

8 My soul close to your heart.
9 No plot to destroy me will descend into
the darkness of hell.

10 They will be consumed by their own and become nothing more than dust under our feet.

11 My voice will be silence.
12 But my voice will be heard in your dance and praise.

13 Along with all his lovers who trust in him.
