

My loving God, the harp in my heart will praise you.

Your faithful heart toward us will be the theme of my song.

Melodies and music will rise to you, the Holy One of Israel.

²I will shout and sing your praises for all you have done to me—

Savior, lover of my soul!

³I'll never stop telling others how great you are, while all those who seek my harm shall be ashamed and defeated!

Psalm

THE RIGHT TO SPEAK

Solomon

¹O God, make the king a godly judge like you and give the king's son the gift of justice too.

²Help him to give the justice to your people, honorably and equally to all.

³Then the mountains of influence will be fruitful; and from your righteousness prosperity and peace flow to all the people.

⁴May the poor and humble have an advocate with the king.

⁵The Septuagint indicates this could be a psalm written by David for his son, Solomon. This royal psalm is a prayer for the king. Read through it as though it is referring to King Jesus—One who is greater than Solomon.

with
the skill
of a Poet...

I
will never run
out
of things to say

