¹³You've transplanted them into your heavenly courtyard where they are thriving before you.

¹⁴For in your presence they will still be anointed.

Even in their old age they will stay fresh, bearing luscious fruit and abiding faithfully.

¹⁵Listen to them! With pleasure they still proclaim:

"You're so good! You're my beautiful Strength! You've never made a mistake with me!"

Psalm 93

THE MAJESTY OF GOD

A Friday song,
composed by King David after being resettled in the temple.

¹Look! Yahweh now reigns as King! He has covered himself with majesty and strength, wearing them as his splendor-garments! Regal power surrounds him as he sits secure on his throne.

He's in charge of it all, the entire world, and he knows what he's doing!

^a makes us immortal and immovable.
^b 52:15 Or, "You are just and never unfair."

^b This inscription is found in the Septuagint. Jews called this psalm "The Friday psalm." The Talmud indicates that this psalm was sung every Friday in the temple by the Levites.
