

PraiseHeart Partners With You To Bring Your Dreams To Life!

Paint parties, and workshops, are a fun & unique way to gain visibility, generate positive exposure, and make money to further your vision! People have a great time, and your work is minimized because I've perfected the process, providing an incredible experience you can be proud of! Past groups have said it's the easiest fundraiser they've ever had! As a stage artist, teacher, speaker and writer, I recognize the value of fundraising with excellence. I'd love the opportunity to partner with you and your amazing organization!

So how does this work? Creating a winning partnership is the key to a successful fundraiser.

Pricing structure:

- As a dreamer of dreams and one who reaches for the stars, I hold fundraising near to my heart. I have gotten myself to Romania, through these fundraisers----it works!!!! Fundraisers serve as opportunities to share your vision, connect to your community, and of course build revenue. It's my honor to stand alongside you.
- How? I give you HALF of the profit. Yes, half! Really! Here's the breakdown. Tickets are sold for $35 per person. $10 is taken out for my cost. This includes art supply "consumables", as well as a percentage for "non-consumables" that require regular replacement.
- The remaining $25 from each ticket, is split! You get $12.50, and I get $12.50. It's that easy. We all get to continue doing the work we love!
- A typical organization brings in 50-80 people on a fundraiser paint party. That's $500 - $800 EASY in one day! And people LOVE IT! It's a win/win/win and a proven success time and time again!
